

28th "Stefano Marizza" International Piano Prize

Stefano Marizza, who passed away in December 1996, was considered one of the most brilliant students of his piano course at the "Giuseppe Tartini" Conservatory in Trieste.

Born in Fogliano on December 9, 1969, he began studying piano under the guidance of teacher Gianna Visintin. Since 1988 he has been a student of maestro Massimo Gon at the Trieste Conservatory where he graduated, with an excellent score, in 1995.

In 1994 he graduated in literary subjects, with honors, from the Faculty of Education in Trieste and, the following year, he enrolled in the degree course in pedagogy.

For years he had been collaborating with the Popular University of Trieste where he was hired in January 1996 and was considered one of the emerging officials. In his frequent trips and contacts in Istria he had established important relationships with the Italian communities by which he was particularly esteemed and appreciated.

EVALUATION OF THE PRE-SELECTION

The Pre-selection Jury will evaluate the video recordings and will communicate its judgment on the candidates to the Competition Secretariat by 23 September 2024, through a numerical evaluation grid between a minimum of 80 and a maximum of 100 points. The Secretary of the Competition will proceed to calculate the numerical average resulting from the sum of all the votes of the jurors, without rounding up or down.

In this way, the ranking of all registered competitors is established, from which the first 12 CANDIDATES will be selected and admitted to the 28th "Stefano Marizza" International Piano Prize.

The results of the pre-selection will be announced by email to all candidates on Monday 23 September 2024.

Selected candidates must confirm by Friday 27 September 2024 whether they intend to participate in the Competition.

In the event of renunciation of participation by one or more selected candidates, the organization will contact the 3 reserves that the Jury has appointed in subordinate order to the 12 selected.

On Monday 30 September 2024, the official list of participants in the 28th "Stefano Marizza" International Piano Prize will be announced.

EVALUATION OF EVIDENCE

The Jury of the Competition will evaluate the first round by means of a numerical evaluation grid between a minimum of 80 and a maximum of 100 points, each member of the Jury will then deliver their form in a sealed envelope to the Secretary of the Competition who will keep it intact until the end of the second round.

The Jury of the Competition will evaluate the second round by means of a numerical evaluation grid between a minimum of 80 and a maximum of 100 points, each member of the Jury will then deliver their form to the Secretary of the Competition who will only then proceed to open the envelopes containing the evaluations of the first test. The Secretary will then proceed to calculate the average obtained by each candidate without rounding up or down and without excluding any vote.

The three candidates with the highest rating will then have access to the next round as Finalists of the Competition.

The Jury of the Competition will evaluate the first final round by means of a numerical evaluation grid from 1 to 3, in which the numerical value indicates the final position for each juror (1 = first place, 2 = second place, 3 = third place), at the discretion of each juror it is possible to assign the same evaluation to more than one candidate; each member of the Jury will then deliver his or her form in a sealed envelope, to the Secretary of the Competition who will keep it intact until the end of the second final round.

The Jury of the Competition will evaluate the second final round by means of a numerical evaluation grid from 1 to 3, in which the numerical value indicates the final position for each juror (1 = first place, 2 = second place, 3 = third place), at the discretion of each juror it is possible to assign the same evaluation to more than one candidate; each member of the Jury will then deliver his or her form to the Secretary of the Competition who will only then proceed to open the envelopes containing the evaluations of the first final round. The vote of the public present in the room will be added to the vote of the Jury, understood as a single voter, the Secretary will then proceed to calculate the position obtained by each candidate.

At the end of the count, there will be a discussion among the members of the Jury to confirm the awarding of the prizes.
